

GFAN Speakers Bureau - Nomination & Application Package

Global Fund Advocates Network (GFAN) is looking to create a “Speakers Bureau” composed of people living with or affected by HIV/AIDS, TB and/or malaria. The principle is that people who have seen the impact of the Global Fund in their lives are the most impactful spokespeople for the Global Fund.

As GFAN members are constantly seeking opportunities to solidify and increase either domestic funding for HIV/AIDS, tuberculosis and malaria or donor funding to the Global Fund Secretariat, being able to call upon trained, impactful spokespeople is a key to the success of their advocacy.

GFAN is looking for no more than 10 people to fill this role through the GFAN Speakers Bureau. These individuals will, as much as possible, represent the diversity of people who are affected by the 3 diseases: men and women of all ages, people from countries around the world and people representing those key populations and communities that are most affected.

ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA - applicants must meet these to be eligible to apply:

Geographic Criteria:

- Speakers should live in a country currently eligible to receive a Global Fund grant.

Language Criteria:

- As English is the most common language of our work, speakers should be able to work in English (speak and read) without the help of translation.

** Speakers who speak other languages - including French in particular - are encouraged to note that prominently in their applications.

Personal Criteria:

- Speakers should be currently accessing, or have accessed in the past, Global Fund supported programs for themselves or a dependent.
- Legally able to travel domestically and internationally

ADDITIONAL CRITERIA - these strongly support an application:

Primary issues that speakers should have some basic ability to speak to and an interest in being able to develop their skills:

- Community needs and results related to the Global Fund and HIV/AIDS, Tuberculosis and Malaria
- Types of activities the GF funds
- Resource mobilization for the Global Fund
- Core GFAN activities and policy issues like UQD

The ideal candidates will also be able to speak, in addition to the above issues, from some kind of personal experience (as an individual, that of a family member or even due to the impact in their community or through their work) to one or more of the following, what we call “entry point issues for advocacy”:

- Women and girls
- Nutrition
- Overall health systems development
- Youth
- Mothers/Maternal Health
- People living openly with HIV
- MDR-TB
- The post-2015 agenda as it relates to health

Nomination process and Application documents

We are asking GFAN partners to nominate candidates that match the profile and requirements listed above along with a resume/CV that highlights professional, personal and volunteer experience relevant to being a speaker in the GFAN Speakers Bureau. GFAN partners may nominate more than one individual.

Each nominated individual should include in their application the following documents if they are interested in being a Speaker:

Required:

1. Letter of nomination from GFAN partner (1 page)
2. Short letter of motivation (1500 words or less) about why being a speaker to champion the work of the Global Fund is of interest and what makes them a speaker able to speak to the issues listed under the Additional Criteria
3. Recent copy of resumé or CV highlighting relevant experience (no more than 2 pages)

Either the nominator or interested speaker may submit the application, but only application packages with all 3 of the listed items above will be considered.

Requested from the nominator:

Short letter (1 page) of recommendation from the GFAN partner that nominates the individual.

Requested from the interested speaker:

Interested speakers are strongly encouraged to address as much of the following in their letter of motivation or resume/CV:
